

CALLING ALL Elementary School ARTISTS

What Does Earth Day Mean to YOU?

GREEN RIDGEWOOD is accepting poster entries for our

2nd Annual Earth Day Art Contest

Here's how it works:

Design a poster that depicts what Earth Day means to you

Drop off your poster with your school art teacher by Friday, April 4

Visit the Ridgewood Daffodil Festival & Earth Day Celebration on Sunday, April 27 from 11:00am – 2:30pm to see the Winner's Circle

1st, 2nd, 3rd place winners will be identified during the Festival

All posters will be on display during and after the Festival at World Flats, 134 E Ridgewood Avenue

Art Poster Contest FAQs

Will all of the Art that I submit from my students be hung up at the festival?

Our intention is to display everything at the festival.

Is there a specific size of paper that the students should be using?

We do not have size restrictions or requirements.

Does the poster need to have words or is only pictures okay?

No words required. Pictures only is fine.

Is there a specific medium you're looking for or are markers, colored pencils, paint, etc. ok?

Any medium works. Get creative!

How will the artwork be collected on Friday April 4th?

A Green Ridgewood volunteer will collect the artwork from the school.

Please liaise with Beth Gould Creller directly for pickup

Beth.Creller@garp.com and (832) 279-4197

Ensure your artist can be identified! Include STUDENT ARTIST NAME, AGE, GRADE, SCHOOL with each poster submitted.
